

Thumb Index:

It is located on the back of book. It has general categories that correspond with marks on the side of the Almanac. This index is good to use for browsing for information.

Quick Reference:

This index has more detail than the Thumb Index. It is in ABC order and includes topics and page numbers. It is slightly more specific than the Thumb Index. It is easy to use for quick questions.

General Index:

It is the most detailed of all indexes. It is in ABC order and includes page numbers. It has Main and Sub topics. It also includes cross -references. Ex: See, and See Also. This index should be used when you know exactly what you are searching for.